Fulton-Montgomery Community College
English Instructor

FMCC is seeking candidates for a full-time, tenure-track position, to teach developmental through transfer-level composition, literature and other English courses. Candidates must be committed to the mission of community colleges and teaching students with a wide range of academic abilities.

Qualifications:
Requires Masters Degree in English or a closely related field and prior teaching experience. Experience instructing at 2-year College level, assessing student learning, developing and evaluating curriculum desired. Proven ability to teach developmental courses is preferred.

Salary/Benefits:
The successful candidate will receive an excellent benefits package and an expected rank/annual salary of Instructor/$48,738.

The anticipated start date is September 1, 2013. The position will remain open until a successful candidate has been identified. However, for fullest consideration, applications should be received by April 26, 2013.

Fulton-Montgomery Community College, a College of the State University of New York, is a comprehensive institution, serving 2,800 students in credit programs, including students from over 20 countries on five continents and Metropolitan New York City. The campus is situated in rural upstate New York, in the foothills of the Adirondack Mountains, approximately 40 miles from Albany, three hours from New York City, 3½ hours from Boston, and four hours from Montreal.

Application procedures: Submit a letter of application, outlining qualifications and experience that are relevant to the position, a resume, copies of undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and the names, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses of five professional references. Electronic submissions are preferred, sent to english.search@fmcc.edu with the position title in the email subject line.

Fulton-Montgomery Community College is an equal opportunity employer, dedicated to workforce diversity.