IN-KIND SUPPORT DOCUMENTATION

Student Name _____ Social Security _____

In-kind support is other than money that was provided to the student (spouse) and dependents.

If the student (spouse) and dependents lived with friends or relatives during 2009, and the friends or relatives paid expenses for that student (spouse) and dependents, the student must report that as cash support on Student's 2009 Untaxed Income. This may include rent, utilities, food, clothing, childcare, or transportation.

The basic rule is:

If someone pays money that the student would otherwise pay, that money is counted as cash support.

STUDENT: List yourself (spouse) and all dependents that lived in the household:

Full Name of Family Member	Birth Date (Mo/Day/Yr)	Relation to Student
		Self

The amount of cash support is as follows:

$ _____ X _____ = $ _____
$ Per Month #of Months Total $ Provided
