Certified Nursing Assistant & Home Health Aide Training is an excellent training opportunity for individuals interested in pursuing a career in the rewarding field of Healthcare. Successful completion of the training and passing the NYS tests will result in certification as both a Certified Nursing Assistant and Home Health Aide.

Course Overview:
- The course consists of an intensive 11-week training program. There will be a combination of evening classes during the week at the FM campus and clinical training on Saturdays at a local health care facility.
- Upon successful completion of the training program, students will be scheduled for the NYS Licensing Exams for CNA and HHA.
- 100% Attendance at all the classroom and clinical instruction is mandatory in order to complete the training and take the NYS Exams.

Requirements to be accepted into the program:
- Proof of minimum age of 17 years
- Proof of high school diploma or high school equivalency
- Completed Health Exam Form & physical exam within 6 months of program start date
- Proof of TB test dated less than 12 months prior to program start date
- Proof of (dated) MMR immunization records or Titer Certificate showing immunity.
- Proof of (dated) Flu Shot for Fall/Winter 2014-2015
- 2 Forms of ID are required: Primary ID must be a Government issued photo ID such as a driver’s license. Secondary form of ID, must have a matching (same name) signature.
- You must attest to having a clear criminal record (absolutely no misdemeanors or felonies)
- You will need a watch with a sweep/second hand, one CNA/HHA uniform and nursing shoes. (these items are not included in the fee for the training)

Fee:
- The course fee is $1,500 which covers all expenses for classroom, clinical training, training materials and testing fees.
- No financial aid is available for this training.
- You may inquire at area healthcare agencies who employ CNA’s or HHA’s to ask if they would consider sponsoring students for this training program.

Next Class:
- We anticipate the next class to start in March 2015.
- To be notified when the application period opens please fill out the form on the FM Website page for Certified Nurse Assistant.