

Scholarships

The Vincent F. Carelli Program Director's Award

Given by Vincent F. Carelli retired program director, to a student who has exhibited excellent clinical abilities, demonstrated outstanding patient care and demonstrated professional rapport with hospital radiology staff and fellow students.

Medical Imaging Student Association Achievement Award

Given by MISA (student radiologic technology club) to a graduate of the Radiologic Technology Program with a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 and who has made significant contributions to the club.

Distinguished Graduate by Academic Program Award

Awarded to graduating students who have demonstrated academic achievement and show promise of future success

Gertrude Dourdounas

Awarded to graduate in Radiologic Technology with the highest GPA.

In memory of Gertrude Dourdounas, who dedicated her life to maintaining high educational standards and a concern for better patient care. She motivated students and was always providing the guiding hand. As an educator and radiographer, she provided the profession with strength and integrity.